

CLAIMS

What is claimed is:

Sub
03/
1. A method for communicating with multiple web sites, comprising:

a) generating a unique email address when registering with a particular one of the multiple web sites;

b) receiving emails from the multiple web sites at an email control center;

c) identifying and sorting the emails according to the web sites from which the emails were received;

d) forwarding the emails on to a user's email account in accordance with instructions provided by the user to the email control center.

Add
one

09437812-11099